

Frequently Asked Questions

At Media Insurance we are always happy to answer your individual questions by post, phone or email. The best way to ask us a question is to give your closest office a ring. We have, however, put together some of the most frequently asked questions and their answers below:

Does everyone need to fill out a Statement of Health form?

A statement of health form need only be completed by individuals who are key to the production and should therefore be covered under 'Cast Insurance'.

Is loss of hire cover included in the policy?

Yes, cover is under the Third Party Property Damage section for loss of hire charges following damage to equipment. The standard Industry period is 13 weeks.

Does the production policy automatically cover motor insurance?

No, motor insurance is additional and needs to be quoted separately.

Does our Employer's Liability policy cover work experience people/student?

Yes, any one individual working directly for the Production Company, i.e. not through a third party contractor.

Is weather cover included?

Weather cover is not covered under a standard production insurance package. We can get quotes if required.

Do I need to send you details of all our equipment for it to be covered?

No, all equipment under your care, custody or control is automatically covered, including freelancer's equipment as long as there is a hire contract for the equipment between the Production Company and the Freelancer.
